Twofold Responsibility: Teach and Learn

Deuteronomy 5:1

"Moses convened all Israel, and said to them: Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances that I am addressing to you today; you shall learn them and observe them diligently."

As the yearly cycle continues, we are at the time of year when teachers and students return to the classroom whether virtual or in person. Covid-19 has caused the in-person school scenario to be topic of much debate. Regardless of the debate, teachers must teach and students must learn.

God gave instructions to Moses to essentially teach what God had given him, the Ten Commandments. However, Moses didn't just keep all of the responsibility in this learning transaction. The people of Israel had a responsibility to "learn them and observe them diligently."

All too often, some teachers don't take the responsibility of actually teaching to heart. Maybe it's just a job or a paycheck to them or maybe they just feel hopeless. To those people, I would say find something else to do. I applaud all the dedicated teachers who go into the classroom year after year, month after month, and day after day to teach.

All the students have a responsibility as well. They have to take advantage of the learning opportunity and spend time to learn and utilize what they are learning. Students should go into the classroom with expectancy to get something that they can use. Just like the bible says that Israel must learn and observe what they learn, students should go into the classroom ready to learn and use what they learn. When that happens, the fruits become more evident.

God bless the teachers and students to have a successful year this year.

Mission of Hope

We are enhancing and creating partnerships to improve the delivery of youth ministry in the Metro Atlanta Area. In this new program, we would like to bring together the best and most hopeful young people across the Metro Atlanta region to provide meaningful opportunities to each of them. Does this mean that we are seeking students with the highest GPA's? Absolutely not! We are seeking students who have a desire to improve their condition and to be all that God has created them to be. In this program, we would like to help assist youth leaders, teachers, mentors, and other in providing programs such as the following:

College Tours • African Heritage Tours • Leadership Development Experiences • Career Development

OBJECTIVE: Provide hope enriching opportunities for the development of youth as future citizens, leaders, and support the development of meaningful personal goals.
